CITIZENS ADDRESSING THE COUNCIL

Mrs. Annette Walker states that she loves every one of the council and Mayor and that each of you have did a fantastic job. When they got in office everyone worked together and now it seems to have changed. Mrs. Walker states that she thought Axis was going to be annexed, more business was coming in, the trailer parks were going to be fixed, the water is brown and it seems that nothing has been done and the council just stopped. She wants something done in the city to get it back to like it was about 6 months ago.

Ms. Gloria Myers asked about the Summerfest again. She said that it was asked how much was made in a meeting before. She would to see how much was raised and what it was spent on. She said they worked hard on the event. Mayor states that the event was handled under the friends of Creola. Ms. Myers asked who is over the Friends of Creola. Mayor states Councilman Martin and his wife. Councilman Martin states that he thought Ms. Myers was present at the meeting when the check was presented to Mayor Criswell and council for a little over $4,700.00. Ms. Myers asked if they have a record of what it was spent on and how much was raised. Chief Kirkland states he has no record of the money or where it went either, he turned it over to Councilman Martin and his wife and that was the last time he saw it. Councilman Martin states that the night the money was presented to the council a statement was giving. Mayor, councilwoman Green and Councilwoman Moss state there was no statement given. Mayor states only 2 cashier checks were presented and he turned them over to the city clerk to be deposit in the bank in the police fund. Ms. Myers suggest next time a fund raiser is done a record should be kept.

Councilman Martin states that since they are having shots at Councilman Martin and his wife who is not here. Councilman Martin states that his wife worked her butt off to make the fundraiser happen with no compensation whatsoever only criticism and it continues. Councilman Martin states that if you think something was criminally wrong to please ask for an investigation. Ms. Myers states that she did not say anything was done wrong all she is asking for is a record of it.

Councilman Hadaway asked if anything was bought with the funds? Chief states it has been put in the police account and spent on uniforms or police stuff. Sergeant Turberville states that there was $6,000.00 raised and what is being asked is what was the expense that the police department only got $4,700.00. They are just wanting a record of what was raised and what it was spent on. Councilman Hadaway states he did not know if it was supposed to be spent on something specific.
