We are fortunate to have such dedicated and capable individuals ready to LEAD our city. Their commitment to serving our community and addressing our needs is truly commendable. Although this election was uncontested, it is essential to recognize and appreciate the willingness of these individuals to step up and take on these important roles. Their leadership and vision will undoubtedly contribute to the continued growth and success of our city.

Please join me in congratulating our newly elected officials and offering them our full support as they will begin their new term November 3, 2025. Together, we can work towards a brighter future for our community.

Marcy Brown
City Clerk
